

MINISTRY OF FOREIGN AFFAIRS

SCHOLARSHIPS AWARDED BY THE REPUBLIC OF CYPRUS TO SYRIAN REFUGEES FOR POSTGRADUATE STUDIES AT CYPRIOT UNIVERSITIES FOR THE ACADEMIC YEAR 2017/18

The Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Cyprus, announces a number of scholarships awarded to Syrian refugees, temporary residing in Lebanon and Jordan, regarding postgraduate studies in selected English-speaking programs offered by the University of Cyprus and the University of Nicosia and Neapolis University Pafos for the academic year 2017/18.

Applicants must be refugees of Syrian nationality and reside in Jordan or Lebanon.

Holders of previously attained post-graduate Degrees are not eligible for the Scholarship.

The duration of the awarded scholarships will be consistent with the minimum duration required for the completion of the graduate studies as declared by the regulations of the above stated academic institutions. The scholarship will be renewed each semester provided that satisfying academic progress has been ensured by the scholar each semester (average Grade Point Average of 70/100).

If the academic performance of the scholar does not satisfy the above mentioned scholarship renewal conditions, the Ministry of Foreign Affairs and the University, by joint decision may, at their discretion, proceed with a reduction, suspension, interruption or termination of the scholarship. The final decision will be implemented by the University.

The scholarship may be terminated at any given moment, by joint decision by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs and the University, if the scholar withdraws from the University.
